College of Education Minimum Requirements

All degree requirements are stated below as college minimums. Please consult the program section of the catalog for variations.

Master’s Degree Programs and Requirements

The master’s programs offered in the College of Education lead to a Master of Arts degree (M.A.), a Master of Arts in Teaching degree (M.A.T.), or a Master of Education (M.Ed.) degree. Students pursuing a Master’s degree must have an earned baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution, or an equivalent foreign degree as determined by an evaluation conducted by an agency approved for foreign credential evaluation. Most programs offer through their M.A.T. degrees, a plan of study that leads to initial teacher certification for holders of a non-education baccalaureate degree. The M.A. degree is primarily designed to increase competence in a teaching specialization or to provide professional preparation in one of the service areas of education. For most programs, two plans of study are available depending on the student’s background and professional goals.

College of Education Requirements for the Master of Arts (M.A.) Degree

A minimum of 30 semester hours is required for the master’s degree, at least 16 hours of which must be at the 6000 level. Courses at the 7000 level are advanced graduate level courses and thus are not approved to be part of the master’s degree program.

The M.A., Plan I

Program of graduate study is for those with a degree or appropriate initial teacher certification in the area of concentration who desire to increase their competence in a subject specialization or to receive additional professional preparation in an educational service area. The Plan I program is not available in all concentration areas. Contact the desired degree program for information.

Plan I Degree Requirements

Plan I students must take a minimum of one of the following Process Core (Foundation) courses. Additional requirements are described under the Program descriptions.

Process Core 3 hours minimum

EDF 6211, Psychological Foundations of Ed. OR EDF 6215, Learning Principles Applied to Instruction
EDF 6481, Foundations of Educational Research
EDF 6432, Foundations of Measurement

EDF 6517, Historical Foundations of American Education, or EDF 6544, Philosophical Foundations of American Education, or
EDF 6606, Socio-Economic Foundations of American Education

Current Trends in Teaching Specialization – 3 hours
Concentration - 18 hours
Comprehensive Examination – Students must be registered for at least 2 graduate hours in the semester during which this exam is taken.
Thesis (Some programs have a Thesis option available)

Note: Check with the program of interest for programmatic variations.

The M.A., Plan III (not available in all areas)
This is a program of graduate study for the holder of a non-education baccalaureate degree who does not desire to meet initial certification requirements in the State of Florida. This plan is not available in all concentration areas. Please contact the program for information.

Plan III Minimum Program Requirements:
Undergraduate Pre-requisites as necessary

Process Core 12 hours
EDF 6432, Foundations of Measurement
EDF 6481, Foundations of Educational Research
EDF 6211, Psychological Foundations of Education or EDF 6215, Learning Principles Applied to Instruction

EDF 6517, Historical Foundations of American Education or EDF 6544, Philosophical Foundations of American Education, or EDF 6606, Socio-Economic Foundations of American Education

Current Trends Course in Teaching Specialization – 3 hrs.
Concentration– 18 graduate hrs. Minimum
Comprehensive Examination

Note: Check with the program of interest for programmatic variations.

M.A.T. Degree
The M.A.T. degree is designed for holders of a non-education baccalaureate degree who desire to meet initial teacher certification requirements as part of a graduate program. The baccalaureate degree must be appropriate (as deemed by program faculty) for the teaching field in which certification is sought. Hours in the M.A.T. degree vary by discipline. Reference the program section of the Graduate Catalog for specific M.A.T. degree requirements.

M.Ed. Degree
The M.Ed. degree is designed for individuals who have a minimum of two years of relevant educational or professional experience in the concentration selected, as judged by the program faculty. This degree option is offered to students pursuing graduate study in educational leadership or curriculum and instruction with an associated specialization/concentration.

College of Education Requirements for the Master of Education degree (M.Ed.)
Two degree tracks are offered.
1. Educational Leadership The M.Ed. in Educational Leadership is designed to improve performance in K-12 school leadership. The degree provides coursework that meets Florida Educational Leadership Core Curriculum requirements in public school curriculum and instruction, organizational management and development, human resource management and development, leadership skills, communication skills, technology, educational law, and educational finance. Successful completion of the program fulfills degree and core curriculum requirements for Florida certification in Level I, K-12 Educational Leadership-Administrative Class. The M.Ed. degree in Educational Leadership requires a minimum of 36 semester hours with 60 percent or more of the courses at the 6000 level. Courses at the 7000 level are advanced graduate level courses and thus are not approved to be part of the master’s degree program.

2. Curriculum and Instruction The M.Ed. degree in Curriculum and Instruction, with a concentration (specialization) area — This degree is designed for the individual who has a minimum of two years of relevant educational or professional experience (as judged by program faculty) in a specialization area who wishes to pursue advanced study in that area. The primary objective is to prepare instructional leaders through courses in curriculum, methods, supervision, learning principles, human interaction, and areas of concentration/specialization. The foundation areas (professional studies) receive greater emphasis in the M.Ed. programs than the M.A. programs. Coursework in the concentration/specialization may include courses in colleges other than the College of Education.

The M.Ed. degree in Curriculum and Instruction requires a minimum of 33 semester hours with 60 percent or more of the courses at the 6000 level. Courses at the 7000 level are advanced graduate level courses and thus are not approved to be part of the master’s degree program.

To be considered for admission to any advanced graduate degree program, students must have earned degrees from regionally accredited institutions, or hold equivalent foreign degrees as determined by an evaluation conducted by an agency approved for foreign credential evaluation, meet the program and/or college-specified minimum GRE and/or GPA-requirements and be favorably recommended also by program faculty or a program admissions committee. Additionally, students must comply with any other college or program requirements specified for the prospective degree program. College of Education Requirements for the Education Specialist Degree (Ed. S.)
The Ed. S. degree consists of a minimum of 36 hours beyond the master’s degree and is flexible in its requirements. The degree is designed to provide professional educators with an opportunity to develop competencies in areas of special needs and interests. Consequently, the degree program has few required courses, and each student’s program is individually planned in consultation with a faculty program committee. Courses at the 5000 level are inappropriate; and a minimum of 15 hours should be taken at the 7000 level.

Program of Study
Concentration coursework - 27 hours minimum.
Thesis (Project) - 9 hours minimum
Comprehensive Examination (oral and/or written)
Oral defense of the project/thesis

Thesis/Project – Ed.S. Degree. The student is required to plan and successfully complete an individual thesis or project. The purpose is to provide an opportunity for the student to apply knowledge gained in the program to the resolution of significant needs arising from professional practice. A minimum of 9 semester hours of thesis enrollment is required in the Ed.S. degree program. Students are required to enroll for a minimum of 2 semester hours in the 6971 thesis course each semester while working on the Ed.S. project and for 2 graduate semester thesis hours in the semester during which the student plans to graduate. Students who have not completed the project after enrolling in the required 9 hours must continue to enroll in a minimum of 2 graduate credit hours each semester, including the semester in which the project is submitted to the College Associate Dean for Academic Affairs or the University Graduate Studies Office (School Psychology students). The focus of this degree program is on the improvement of educational practice. Although research skills are recognized as being the basis of any doctoral program, the Ed.D. is considered more a practitioner’s than a research degree. Currently, the degree in Special Education with a concentration in Administration and Supervision is closed to new admissions.
College of Education Minimum Requirements for the Doctor of Education Degree (Ed. D.)

Program of Study
The Ed. D. requires a minimum of 76 hours beyond the master’s degree.
Concentration - 24 hours minimum
Curriculum and Instruction - 6 hours minimum
Statistics/Measurement/ Research Design - 11 hours minimum
Psychological and Social Foundations - 11 hours minimum
Dissertation - 24 hours min.

Dissertation
Beginning with the semester immediately following admission to candidacy, students must be enrolled for a minimum of 50% of the required dissertation credit hours in each 12-month period for the first two years after being admitted to candidacy. Students may complete these hours in either two or three semesters but must be enrolled for dissertation hours in the Fall and Spring semesters of each year during the two year (24-month) period. Students may elect not to register for dissertation hours during the summer semester if in this two-year period they are not using university facilities or other USF resources, including faculty and staff time.

If such resources are being used, then enrollment in a minimum of two dissertation hours during the summer semester is required. If the dissertation is not completed by the time the required hours of dissertation credit have been accrued, students must enroll continuously thereafter, including summer semester, for a minimum of two dissertation hours per semester until graduation. (This includes the semester during which the dissertation is defended and the semester in which final submission of the dissertation is made to the Graduate School).

Exceptions to the continuous enrollment policy may be approved if the major professor writes a letter of petition to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, indicating specifically the nature and duration of the exception and the justification. Unless an exception has been approved, failure to enroll as specified may result in dismissal of the student from the program. To be readmitted, the student must secure permission from the major professor and write a letter of request, co-signed by the major professor, to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, outlining in detail a timeline for completing the dissertation. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs will approve or deny the request. This process will be independent of, and will not replace, any procedures required for readmission by the University Office of Graduate Studies, or the department.

Residency
Ed.D. students must enroll for at least nine hours of graduate work in each of two semesters in a 12-month period. Individual programs may have additional residency requirements.

Doctoral Qualifying Examination
Students must demonstrate satisfactory performance on the Doctoral Qualifying Examination, and have completed all required coursework with satisfactory grades prior to admission to candidacy.

This Adult Education degree is a Plan III, non-certification option.

Accreditation: Accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

ADMISSION INFORMATION

Must meet University requirements (see Graduate Admissions) as well as requirements listed below.

Program Admission Requirements
Admission to the M.A. program in Adult Education is based on a holistic evaluation of the applicants’ demonstrated potential to complete successfully all of the course and research requirements specific to the degree. Applications are considered on a continuous basis throughout the year. Success in the program requires excellent presentation and high quality writing skills, scholarship, and a commitment to systematic inquiry. The admissions committee will consider each applicant in light of his or her qualifications and likelihood of success. Admission Process

For consideration for admission, students must submit:

Students may additionally submit documentation of their potential for success with inclusion of the following:

- Successful professional experiences related to the academic program and professional goals of the applicant;
- Demonstrated commitment to personal and professional growth and development and to the completion of the coursework and project demands of the program;
- Excellent communication skills.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

Program Description
Prepares leaders, researchers, university faculty and related personnel to serve in the broad field of Career and Workforce Education.

Accreditation: Accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of College and Schools.

ADMISSION INFORMATION

Must meet university requirements (see Graduate Admissions) as well as program requirements listed below.

Program Admission Requirements
Admission to the Ph.D. program in Career and Workforce Education is based on an evaluation of the applicants’ demonstrated potential to complete successfully program coursework and research requirements. Success in the program requires a commitment to rigorous and systematic inquiry in the field along with excellent research skills and high quality scholarship.

Program faculty employ a holistic approach to admissions consideration, taking into account all of the information provided by applicants to balance test scores, previous grade point averages, recommendation forms, professional experiences and successes, and goals.

Admission Process
To be considered for admission, all applicants must submit the application materials listed below unless a particular requirement can be waived or additional/alternative documentation can be accepted. The following application materials should be sent directly to the Graduate Admissions Office:

- The University’s Graduate Admissions Application and related items (see Office of Graduate Admissions website at: http://admissions.grad.usf.edu/).
- Official Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores with no more than one sub-score below the 33rd percentile. If a score in one area is very low, the other should be considerably higher.
In exceptional cases, students not meeting this criterion may submit additional or alternative documentation of their potential for success in doctoral level studies.

- GRE scores may be waived in exceptional cases for applicants who have graduated from master’s degree programs in the Adult, Career, and Higher Education Department at USF with a GPA of 3.9 or higher (on a scale of 4.0) and received excellent ratings from program faculty (i.e., recommendation forms).

- Official transcripts from previous educational institutions. Applicants should have completed a master’s degree from a regionally accredited university with a 3.5 or higher graduate grade point average (GPA) on a 4.0 scale.

In addition, the following application materials must be submitted directly to the program coordinator:

- A current professional vita or resume.
- A cover letter including a statement of professional and personal goals, and reasons that earning the doctorate is important to those goals.
- Three Program Recommendation Forms (available for downloading at program website) completed by former professors or supervisors rating the applicant’s likelihood of success in the doctoral program.

The application materials should provide evidence of: (a) significant successful professional experiences supporting the fit between professional background, goals, and the applicant’s potential doctoral program of study; (b) commitment to personal and professional growth and development and to the completion of the rigorous course and research demands of the Ph.D. program; and (c) excellent academic, analytical and communication skills. To this end, an on campus or phone interview should be arranged with the program coordinator as an opportunity for both prospective students and faculty to gauge the fit with the program.

Applications are considered on a continuous basis throughout the year, although students are formally admitted into the program every two years beginning in the fall semester of even years. Applicants should be aware that meeting admissions requirements does not guarantee admission to the program. To ensure appropriate faculty support, the program will accept only a limited number of students every two years and in some cases applicants meeting or exceeding admission requirements may not be accepted for the requested starting date. To this end, applicants are strongly encouraged to apply early to the program.

Applicants are encouraged to contact the program director prior to applying. Applications are considered on a continuous basis throughout the year, although the offering of courses favors fall semester for initial registration. The faculty employ a holistic approach to the admissions consideration, taking into account all of the information and balancing test scores, previous grade point averages, recommendations, professional experiences and successes, etc. However, the program faculty give preference to candidates presenting:

PROGRAM INFORMATION

Program Description
The Ph.D. in Curriculum and Instruction with a concentration in Measurement and Evaluation focuses on the development of systematic inquiry skills essential to the study and evaluation of education processes and outcomes. The intent of the program is to develop personnel to work in universities, school districts, government agencies, commercial test publishing and program evaluation enterprises. The doctoral program emphasizes research in inquiry methodology and applied problems in education and the behavioral sciences. A supervised practicum provides opportunities to apply methods in systematic inquiry or evaluation in various settings. In sum, methodological skills are developed within a programmatic context that encourages growth of knowledge about education, considers important principles of research, and provides a clinical setting in which these elements can be fused into professional applications.

Emphasis is placed on those aspects of research and evaluation design, measurement, statistical analysis, and systems approaches that are relevant to both decision-oriented and conclusion-oriented research. Inquiry methods include traditional experimental and quasi-experimental designs as well as survey, policy analysis, historical, ethnographic, case study, naturalistic and mixed methods approaches. The intent of the program is to develop instructional and research personnel who can strengthen the training, research and development capabilities of agencies and institutions concerned with education. While the doctoral program in measurement, research, and evaluation emphasizes methodology, concentration in substantive disciplines within education and/or the social sciences is possible. Concentration in a cognate provides a context within which the methods of systematic inquiry may be applied.

Accreditation: Accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of College and Schools.

The goal of the program is to prepare students for careers in academia.

Accreditation:
Accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of College and Schools.

Major Research Areas:

ADMISSION INFORMATION

- Supply a current curriculum vitae;
• Provide 3 letters of recommendation from professors or other individuals who can attest to the applicant’s experience and background;
• Offer evidence of research experience and/or scholarly promise in the statement of purpose and cover letter;
• Meet with the graduate faculty for a personal interview;
• In addition to proficiency in their native language (L1), students must demonstrate proficiency in two other world languages (L2, L3). Proficiency in speaking the L2 must be at the “Advanced” level or higher, as measured on the Oral Proficiency Guidelines (OPI) of the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL). Speaking proficiency in L3 must be at the “Novice” level or higher, again as measured by ACTFL. For specific information, consult www.actfl.org. The program advisors will determine whether the students have met this requirement based on these as well as other criteria identified by the SLA/IT faculty. Criteria and documentation for L2 and L3 should be submitted before the student is accepted into the SLA/IT program.

Most students admitted to this program will:

• Possess a Master’s degree (or equivalent academic level) from a regionally accredited institution or its international equivalent;

A minimum total score of 79 on the internet-based test, or 550 on the paper-based test, are required. Applications submitted with TOEFL scores that do not meet the minimum requirements will be denied. The TOEFL requirement may be waived if the applicant meets one of the following conditions:

PROGRAM INFORMATION

Program Description
The Master's Program in Gifted Education (Plan I) provides advanced training for certified teachers to work with gifted and talented students and with other teachers on a consultant or collaborative basis. The courses for this program are offered through an on-line format, though some courses may be taken on campus. Emphasis is placed on developing specific skills in identification of gifted students; focusing on the characteristics and needs of special populations; assessing students’ cognitive and affective strengths; modifying educational programs to develop gifted students’ potential; and consulting with gifted students, their families, and teachers. This program qualifies students for the State of Florida Endorsement in Gifted Education.

After admission to a program, the candidate and the department advisor together chart a program of study incorporating core requirements. Courses stress field based experiences. Students provide their own transportation to practicum sites in K-12 education settings. The practicum experience requires candidates to access assessment information about K-12 students in their school setting, including performance on individualized intelligence tests, achievement tests, and educational programs (EPs). Practicum coursework also requires candidates to conduct extended projects focused on the development and educational progress of K-12 gifted students. Employment in a K-12 classroom as a licensed educator is required to successfully complete program coursework.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

Program Description
The Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) is a graduate program in special education for individuals teaching with temporary certification and/or individuals who hold an undergraduate degree in an area other than special education. This program leads to a Master of Arts in Teaching degree, certification in Exceptional Student Education (ESE) and endorsement in Reading and ESOL. Students can be admitted to the program during any semester throughout the year; however, the special education core course sequence begins in the summer. Students in the M.A.T. Program benefit from an integrated curriculum taught in six-hour blocks; mentors who are master teachers within the district that provide one-on-one mentoring for each program participant; and accelerated delivery of course content which allows for completion of the degree in two summers and three academic semesters. All students are required to conduct action research in their classrooms, investigating how they may more effectively use research-based interventions. This requires that students link theory and practice and encourages an inquiring approach to teaching.

Admissions Criteria

The program employs a holistic approach to admissions taking into account all the information provided by applicants to balance test scores, previous grade point averages, recommendation forms, professional experiences, and accomplishments. This information is used to assess academic, analytical, and communication skills, the applicant’s commitment to personal and professional growth and development, and potential for successful completion of the Ed.S. program. In particular, the program gives preference to candidates presenting the following evidence:

- Hold a Master’s degree from an accredited institution in an area that clearly serves as the foundation for advanced study aligned with the premises of the Ed.S. degree, and with 3.5 or better Graduate Point Average (GPA) on a 4.0 scale.

- Strong GRE scores having no more than one sub-score below the 33rd percentile. If a score in one area is very low, the other should be considerably higher. The GRE must have been taken no more than 5 years prior to the date of application for graduate admission. In exceptional cases: (a) students not meeting this criterion may submit additional or alternative documentation of their potential for success in the program, or (b) GRE scores may be waived in the case of applicants who have graduated from master’s degree programs in the Adult, Career, and Higher Education Department at USF with a GPA of 3.9 or higher (on a scale of 4.0) and received excellent ratings from program faculty (i.e., recommendation forms).

- Track record of significant successful professional experiences supporting the fit between professional background and career goals.

Applicants are responsible for evaluating their individual alignment with criteria for admission to the program and ensuring that all pertinent materials are submitted to the Graduate Admissions Office and Program Coordinator as indicated above. Contacting the Program Coordinator prior to applying to Graduate Admissions is strongly advised.

Applicants should be aware that meeting admissions requirements does not guarantee admission to the program. To ensure appropriate faculty support, the program accepts only a limited number of students and in some cases applicants meeting or exceeding admission requirements may not be accepted for the requested starting date.
