

Fall 2009 USF Graduate School Workshop Schedule

FULBRIGHT-HAYES FELLOWSHIP INTEREST WORKSHOP -

Facilitated by Dr. Richard Pollenz, Professor and Associate Dean

Students will gain knowledge about the application process for the Fulbright program

Thurs., Sept. 3, 4—6pm in BEH318

POSTER PRESENTATION SKILLS WORKSHOP -

Facilitated by Dr. Richard Pollenz, Professor and Associate Dean

Knowledge will be shared on formatting and presenting academic posters. This will also benefit students participating in October 8, 2009 USF Graduate Student Research Symposium

Thurs., Sept. 10, 4—6pm in MSC3705

ORAL PRESENTATION SKILLS WORKSHOP -

Facilitated by Dr. Richard Pollenz, Professor and Associate Dean

Students will be given advice on how to present in front of various academic audiences

Tues., Sept. 22, 4—6pm in MSC4103

GRADUATE STUDENT WRITING WORKSHOP -

Facilitated by Dr. Richard Pollenz, Professor and Associate Dean with Kate Pantelides, Coordinator of the USF Writing Center

Advice will be shared on writing at the graduate student level: literature reviews, publications, etc.

Thurs., Oct. 1, 5—7pm in MSC3705

LIBRARY INFORMATION WORKSHOP -

Facilitated by USF main library staff

Students will learn about library resources and procedures.

Tues., Oct. 6, 12-1pm in USF Main Library LIB 209

FINDING FUNDING FOR YOUR RESEARCH -

Facilitated by Dr. Richard Pollenz, Professor and Associate Dean

Students will learn about resources, policies and procedures regarding funding opportunities for thesis and dissertation research projects. This workshop is being provided in conjunction with ResearchOne Week.

Thur., Oct. 8, 10:30am-12:00pm in Oak Room, IRDB Building

FACULTY PERSPECTIVES ON ACADEMIC CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION -

Facilitated by Dr. Richard Pollenz, Professor and Associate Dean and including USF faculty across multiple disciplines

A faculty panel will provide insight on attending, participating and presenting at academic conferences.

Tues., Oct. 20, 5—7pm in MSC2707

RESEARCH ETHICS/COMPLIANCE WORKSHOP -

Facilitated by Dr. Richard Pollenz, Professor and Associate Dean and including staff and administrators from Research Compliance

Knowledge will be shared about the Institutional Review Board (IRB) application and abiding by the ethical standards of medical, social and behavioral research

Tues., Oct. 15, 5—7pm in MSC3705

CAREERS WORKSHOP -

Facilitated by Dr. Richard Pollenz, Professor and Associate Dean and including USF faculty across multiple disciplines

Advice on the pursuit of academic and non-academic jobs

Tues., Nov. 3, 4—6pm in MSC2707

WHAT IS A POSTDOC? -

Facilitated by Dr. Richard Pollenz, Professor and Associate Dean and including USF faculty across multiple disciplines

The merits of and applying to postdoctoral positions.

Thurs., Nov. 5, 4—6pm in MSC2707

LIBRARY INFORMATION WORKSHOP -

Facilitated by USF main library staff

Students will learn about library resources and procedures.

Tues., Nov. 10, 4-5pm in USF Main Library USF Main Library LIB 209

CHOOSING A MENTOR –

Facilitated by Dr. Richard Pollenz, Professor and Associate Dean

Advice provided on selecting a faculty mentor for thesis & dissertation research projects

Thurs., Nov. 12, 4—6pm, in MSC3705

ACADEMIC ADVISING PANEL -

Facilitated by Dr. Richard Pollenz, Professor and Associate Dean and the USF Graduate School

Faculty/administrators' advice on earning your degree

Tues., Nov. 17, 4—6pm, in MSC2707