Rhetoric & Composition Concentration

ENG 6018—Criticism & Theory I (may have been taken at the MA level) (3)
ENG 6019—Criticism & Theory II (may have been taken at the MA level) (3)

ENG 7939 (2)—Doctoral Seminar
(Must be taken twice in conjunction with a three-credit hour course — 1 credit for each seminar; the two courses plus the two seminar credits total 8 credits)

LAE 7376 Problems in Advanced Composition Instruction
OR
LAE 7390 Problems in Advanced English Instruction and Scholarly Research (this requirement may be waived for students who have extensive teaching experience)

Electives—Other courses offered in English

Other
Demonstrated proficiency in one foreign language by one of the following means:
Place beyond Level IV in a language placement test (administered by World Language Education)
Earn a B or better in one of the graduate courses Reading for French, Spanish, or German
Earn a B or better in two semester courses of an intermediate foreign language (e.g., Spanish III and Spanish IV)
Earn a B or better in a fourth semester language course (e.g., Spanish IV)
Earn a B or better in a second semester Latin course

Qualifying Exam
PhD qualifying exam

Dissertation
ENG 7980 Dissertation: Doctoral—Minimum of 10 dissertation hours (no maximum)