SUNY BUFFALO – Concentration

I could not find a definition of concentration. Based on a search of the college/school sites, it appears the terms concentration and track are used interchangeably. It also appears that there are generally some core or foundation requirements onto which the concentration is built. At the undergraduate level, it appears that a concentration is similar to what I would call a major.