The USF Graduate School is Proud to Sponsor the Following
Student Success Workshops for New Students During Orientation Week 2010

Navigating and Succeeding in Graduate School
Wednesday, August 11, 2010
MSC 2708, 10:30am-12:30pm
Facilitated by: RS Pollenz, Ph.D., Professor and Associate Dean
This session will provide information about the process of being a graduate student. Topics include: Overview of graduate administration at USF; Who to go to resolve academic problems; Best practices for time management and student success; Overview of graduate student resources; Barriers to success and how to overcome them. Time will be permitted for questions and answers.

Choosing a Mentor
Wednesday, August 11, 2010
MSC 2708, 5:30-7:30 pm
Facilitated by: RS Pollenz, Ph.D., Professor and Associate Dean
Advice will be provided on how to go about selecting a faculty mentor for thesis & dissertation research projects as well as tips on how to find a good research project. Time will be permitted for questions and answers.

Finding Funding for Your Research
Thursday, August 12, 2010
MSC 2708, 5:30-7:30 pm
Facilitated by: RS Pollenz, Ph.D., Professor and Associate Dean
This session will provide information about the process of being a graduate student. Topics include: Overview of graduate administration at USF; Who to go to resolve academic problems; Best practices for time management and student success; Overview of graduate student resources; Barriers to success and how to overcome them. Time will be permitted for questions and answers on any student concerns.

There is limited space for each of these workshops. Students must indicate their intent to attend one or more of the workshops when registering for the orientation event.